

NATIONAL PARKS / PROJECTS

EL REY

National Park

Salta / NORTH

In the north-center of Salta, enormous trees and ancient plants; insects of all colors, 300 species of birds and elusive animals; rivers, lagoons and brooks with the purest water. All the beauty of the mountain forests and Chaco's Forest in the first National Park of the Argentine North.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

LOS CARDONES

National Park

Salta / NORTH

Located in the center-west of Salta, in the heart of the Valles Calchaquíes, this National Park in the heights, populated by impressive cactus, maintains the marks of cultures from other times and stands out on the way to the most emblematic towns of the traditional Route 40.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

ACONQUIJA

National Park

Tucumán / NORTH

Second National Park in Tucumán, and one of the newest in Argentina, its lands maintain the majestic mountain forests, the source of the rivers that overflow the valleys and cultivation fields of Tucumán, and a treasure of Pre-Hispanic times declared World Heritage by UNESCO: La Ciudacita.

TALAMPAYA

National Park

La Rioja / NORTH

In the central-west of La Rioja, a red desert with very high walls that get lost in the horizon: rocks shaped by the rain, the wind and the sun for millions of years. A National Park, which was once the land of dinosaurs and ancient cultures, declared World Heritage Site by UNESCO, it is a date with history and adventure you cannot miss.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

EL LEONCITO

National Park

San Juan / CUYO

In the west of San Juan, in the heart of Tontal hill, facing the Calingasta valley, a National Park where the soil is looked after in order to protect the sky. A universe with thousands of stars close to the internationally acknowledged astronomic complexes.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

SIERRA DE LAS QUIJADAS

National Park

San Luis / CUYO

Only National Park in San Luis, with paths to walk among enormous cañadones, going through archeological sites, to discover the footprints of dinosaurs and petrified trunks that invite to travel in time.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

IGUAZÚ

National Park

Misiones / LITORAL

The protected area with the largest biodiversity in the country. A unique and unforgettable experience, in the land of great rivers, where the wonderful Falls, and the sounds and aromas of the jungle thrill visitors. Declared World Heritage Site by UNESCO, this National Park is an authentic classic place in Argentina.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

Year of Creation:

1934

Surface:

67.620 hectares

Ecoregions: Selva

Paranaense Visitors:

1,426,442 (2017)

Activities: ...

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

MBURUCUYÁ

National Park

Corrientes / LITORAL

In the province of Corrientes, a National Park where the lagoons, brooks with crystal clear water, and palm trees draw this landscape. In the land of Esteros del Iberá, a protected area full of paths, ideal for bird watching.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

EL PALMAR

National Park

Entre Ríos / LITORAL

In the southeast of the province of Entre Ríos, on the shore of Uruguay River, the National Park where the last Yatay palm tree forest in the world rests. Ideal to enjoy unforgettable sunsets with all the colors of the Litoral.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

QUEBRADA DEL CONDORITO

National Park

Córdoba

First National Park of Córdoba, located at the heart of the Sierras Grandes, where you can go through paths of low to medium complexity to discover mountain meadows, tabaquillo forests and the home to the all-time majestic condors.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

CIERVO DE LOS PANTANOS

National Park

Buenos Aires

60 minutes from the center of the City of Buenos Aires, the youngest National Park in Argentina. To find out, learn to take care of and enjoy the beauty of the wetland. Close to Delta del Tigre, a world of meadows, which are the home to thousands of birds and the amazing swam deer.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

NAHUEL HUAPI

National Park

Río Negro - Neuquén / PATAGONIA

First National Park in Argentina. A must in the Patagonia, this destination lures travelers throughout the country and the world all year round: in winter, when snow covers its forests and mountains, and in summer, when its enchanting water mirrors stand out.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

LANÍN

National Park

Neuquén / PATAGONIA

At the foot of the Andes, a National Park that invites to discover Argentine Patagonia with the eyes of the sky. The land of an emblematic summit: the impressive Lanin Volcano. A world of lakes, cascades and glaciers full of fantastic paths that go through the ever-enchanting Patagonic forests.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

LAGO PUELO

National Park

Chubut / PATAGONIA

In the province of Chubut, this National Park where one of the lowest points of the Andes appears. 200 m above sea level, a protected area of pure Patagonic nature shows unforgettable postcards of forests, paths, lakes and beaches ideal for adventure.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

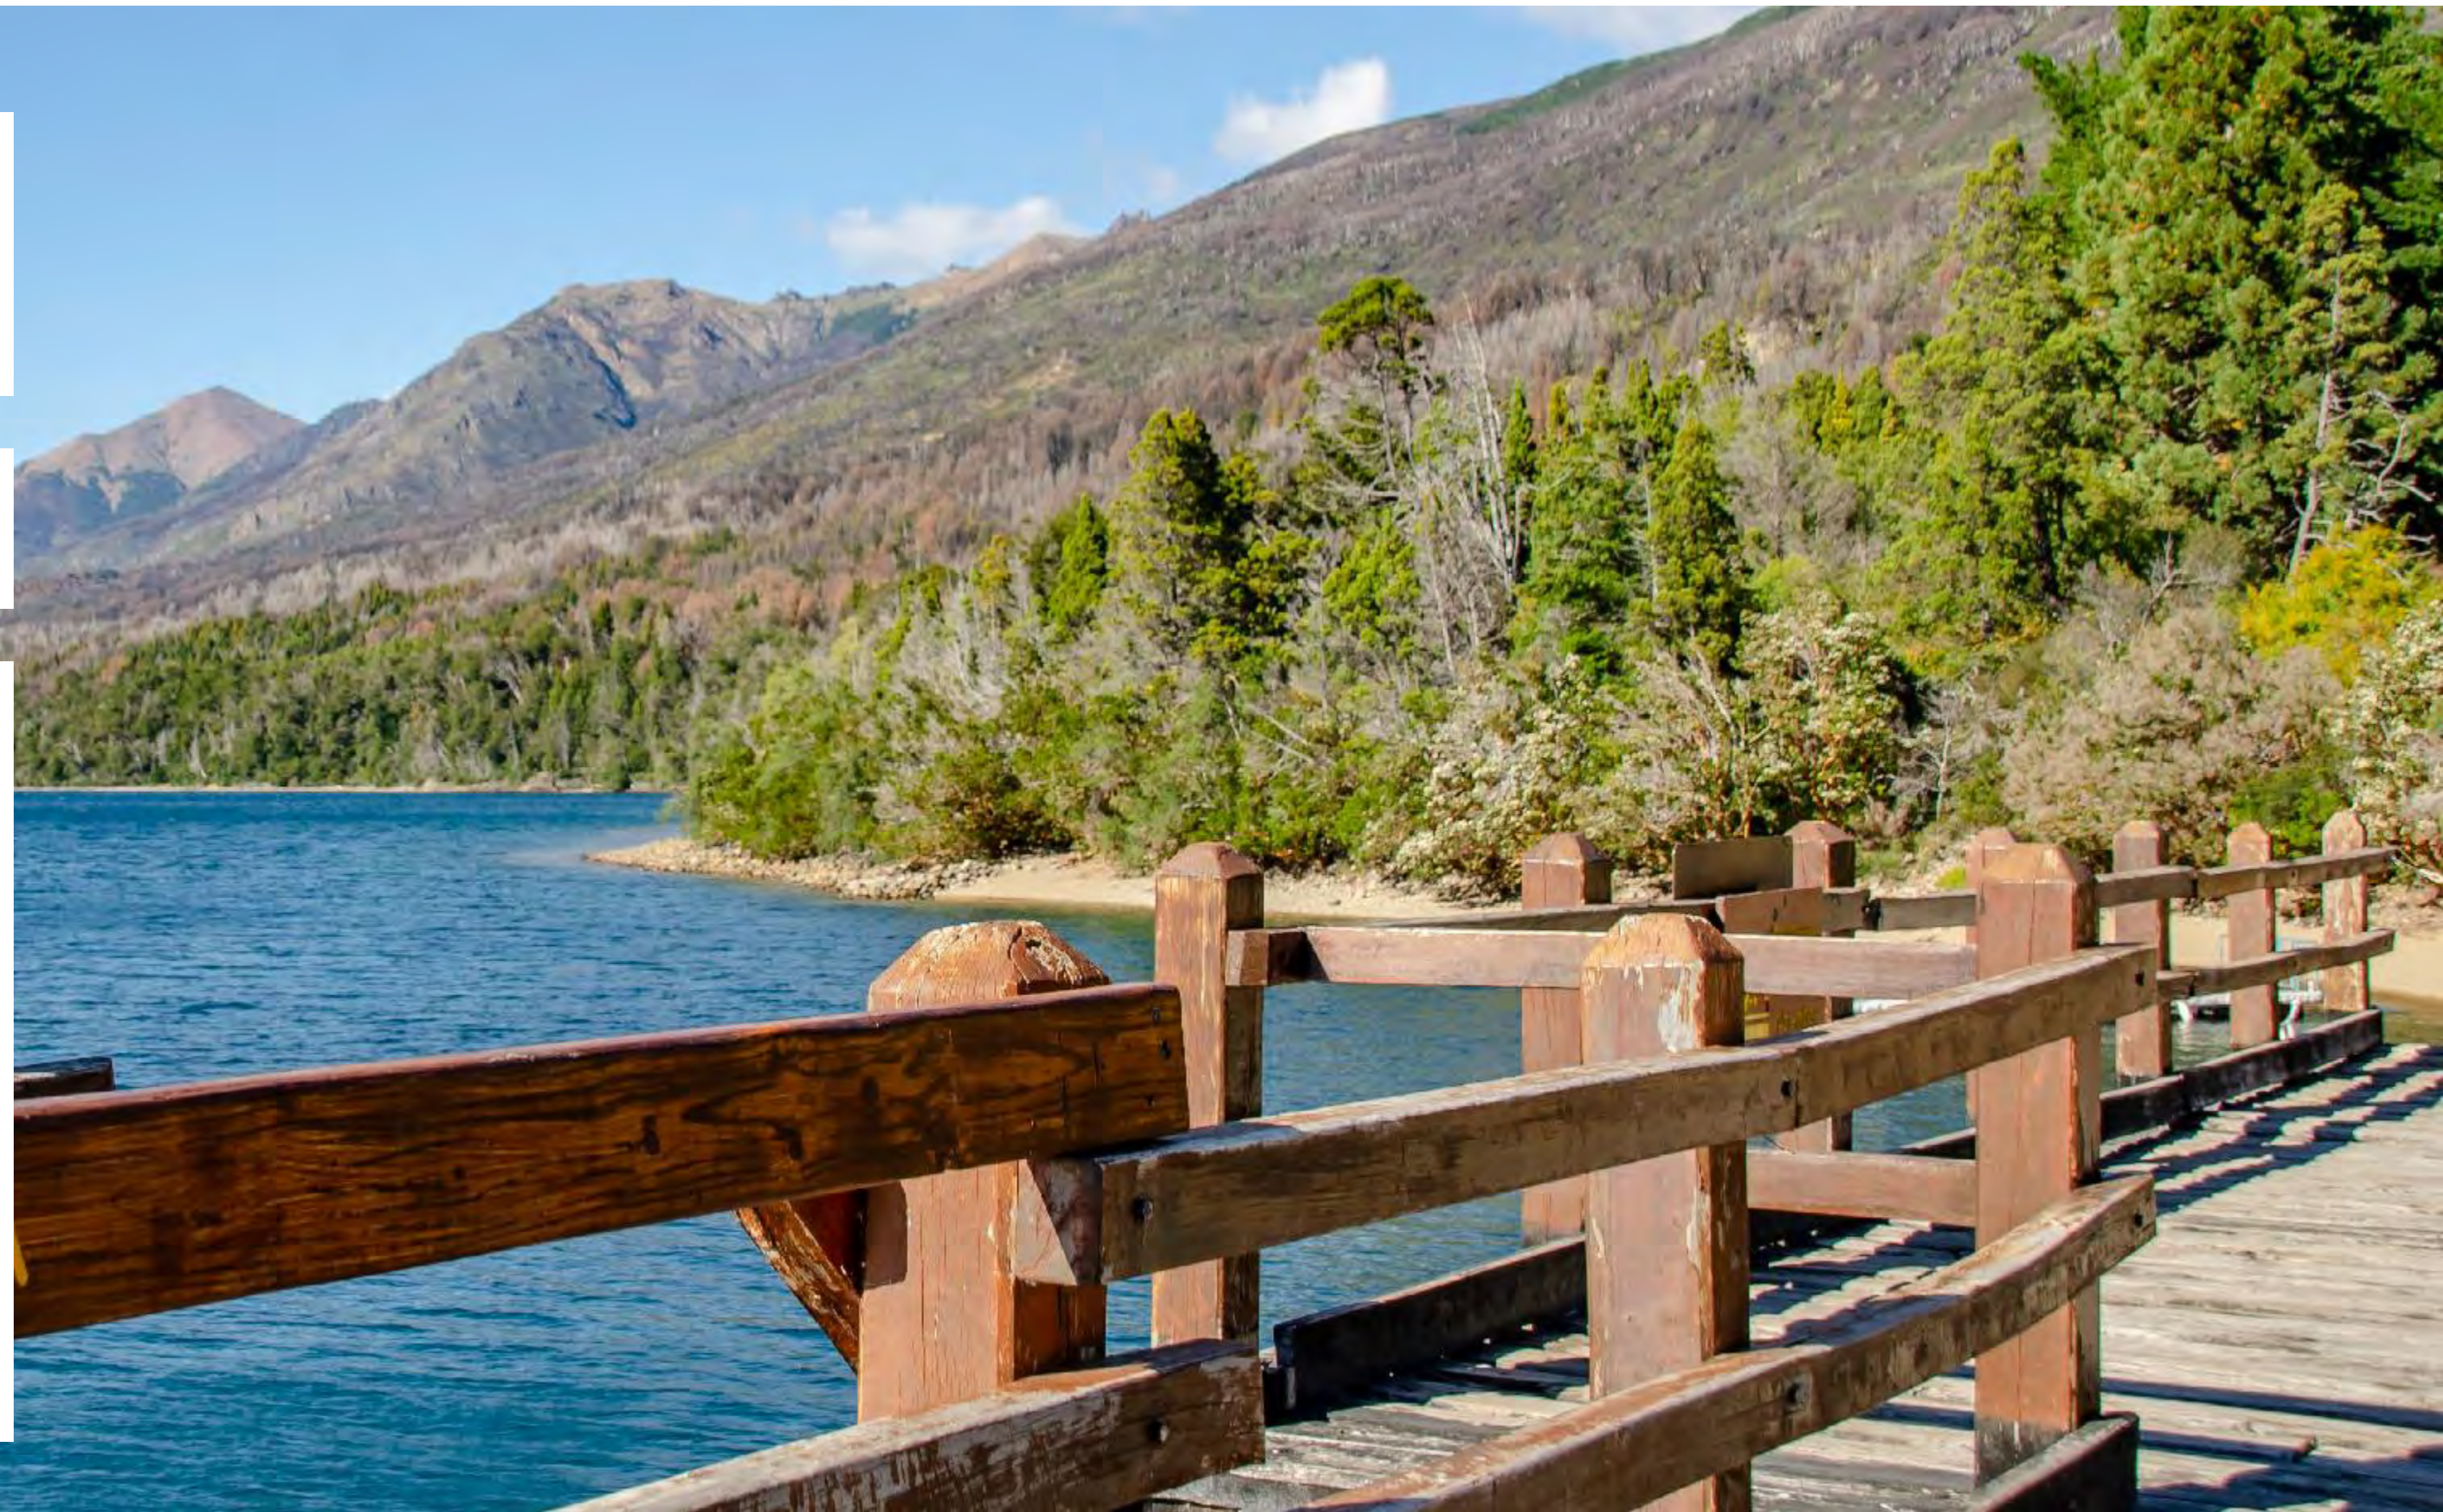

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

LOS ALERCES

National Park

Chubut / PATAGONIA

In the Patagonia of the lakes, a National Park that keeps lush and ancient forests where the second oldest species in the world stands out. A millenary Alerce area, which is a witness of the passage of native cultures, and it is the main reason why the area was declared World Heritage Site by UNESCO in 2017. Between emblematic hills and summits, a world of paths, lakes and rivers, intertwined in perfect sync.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

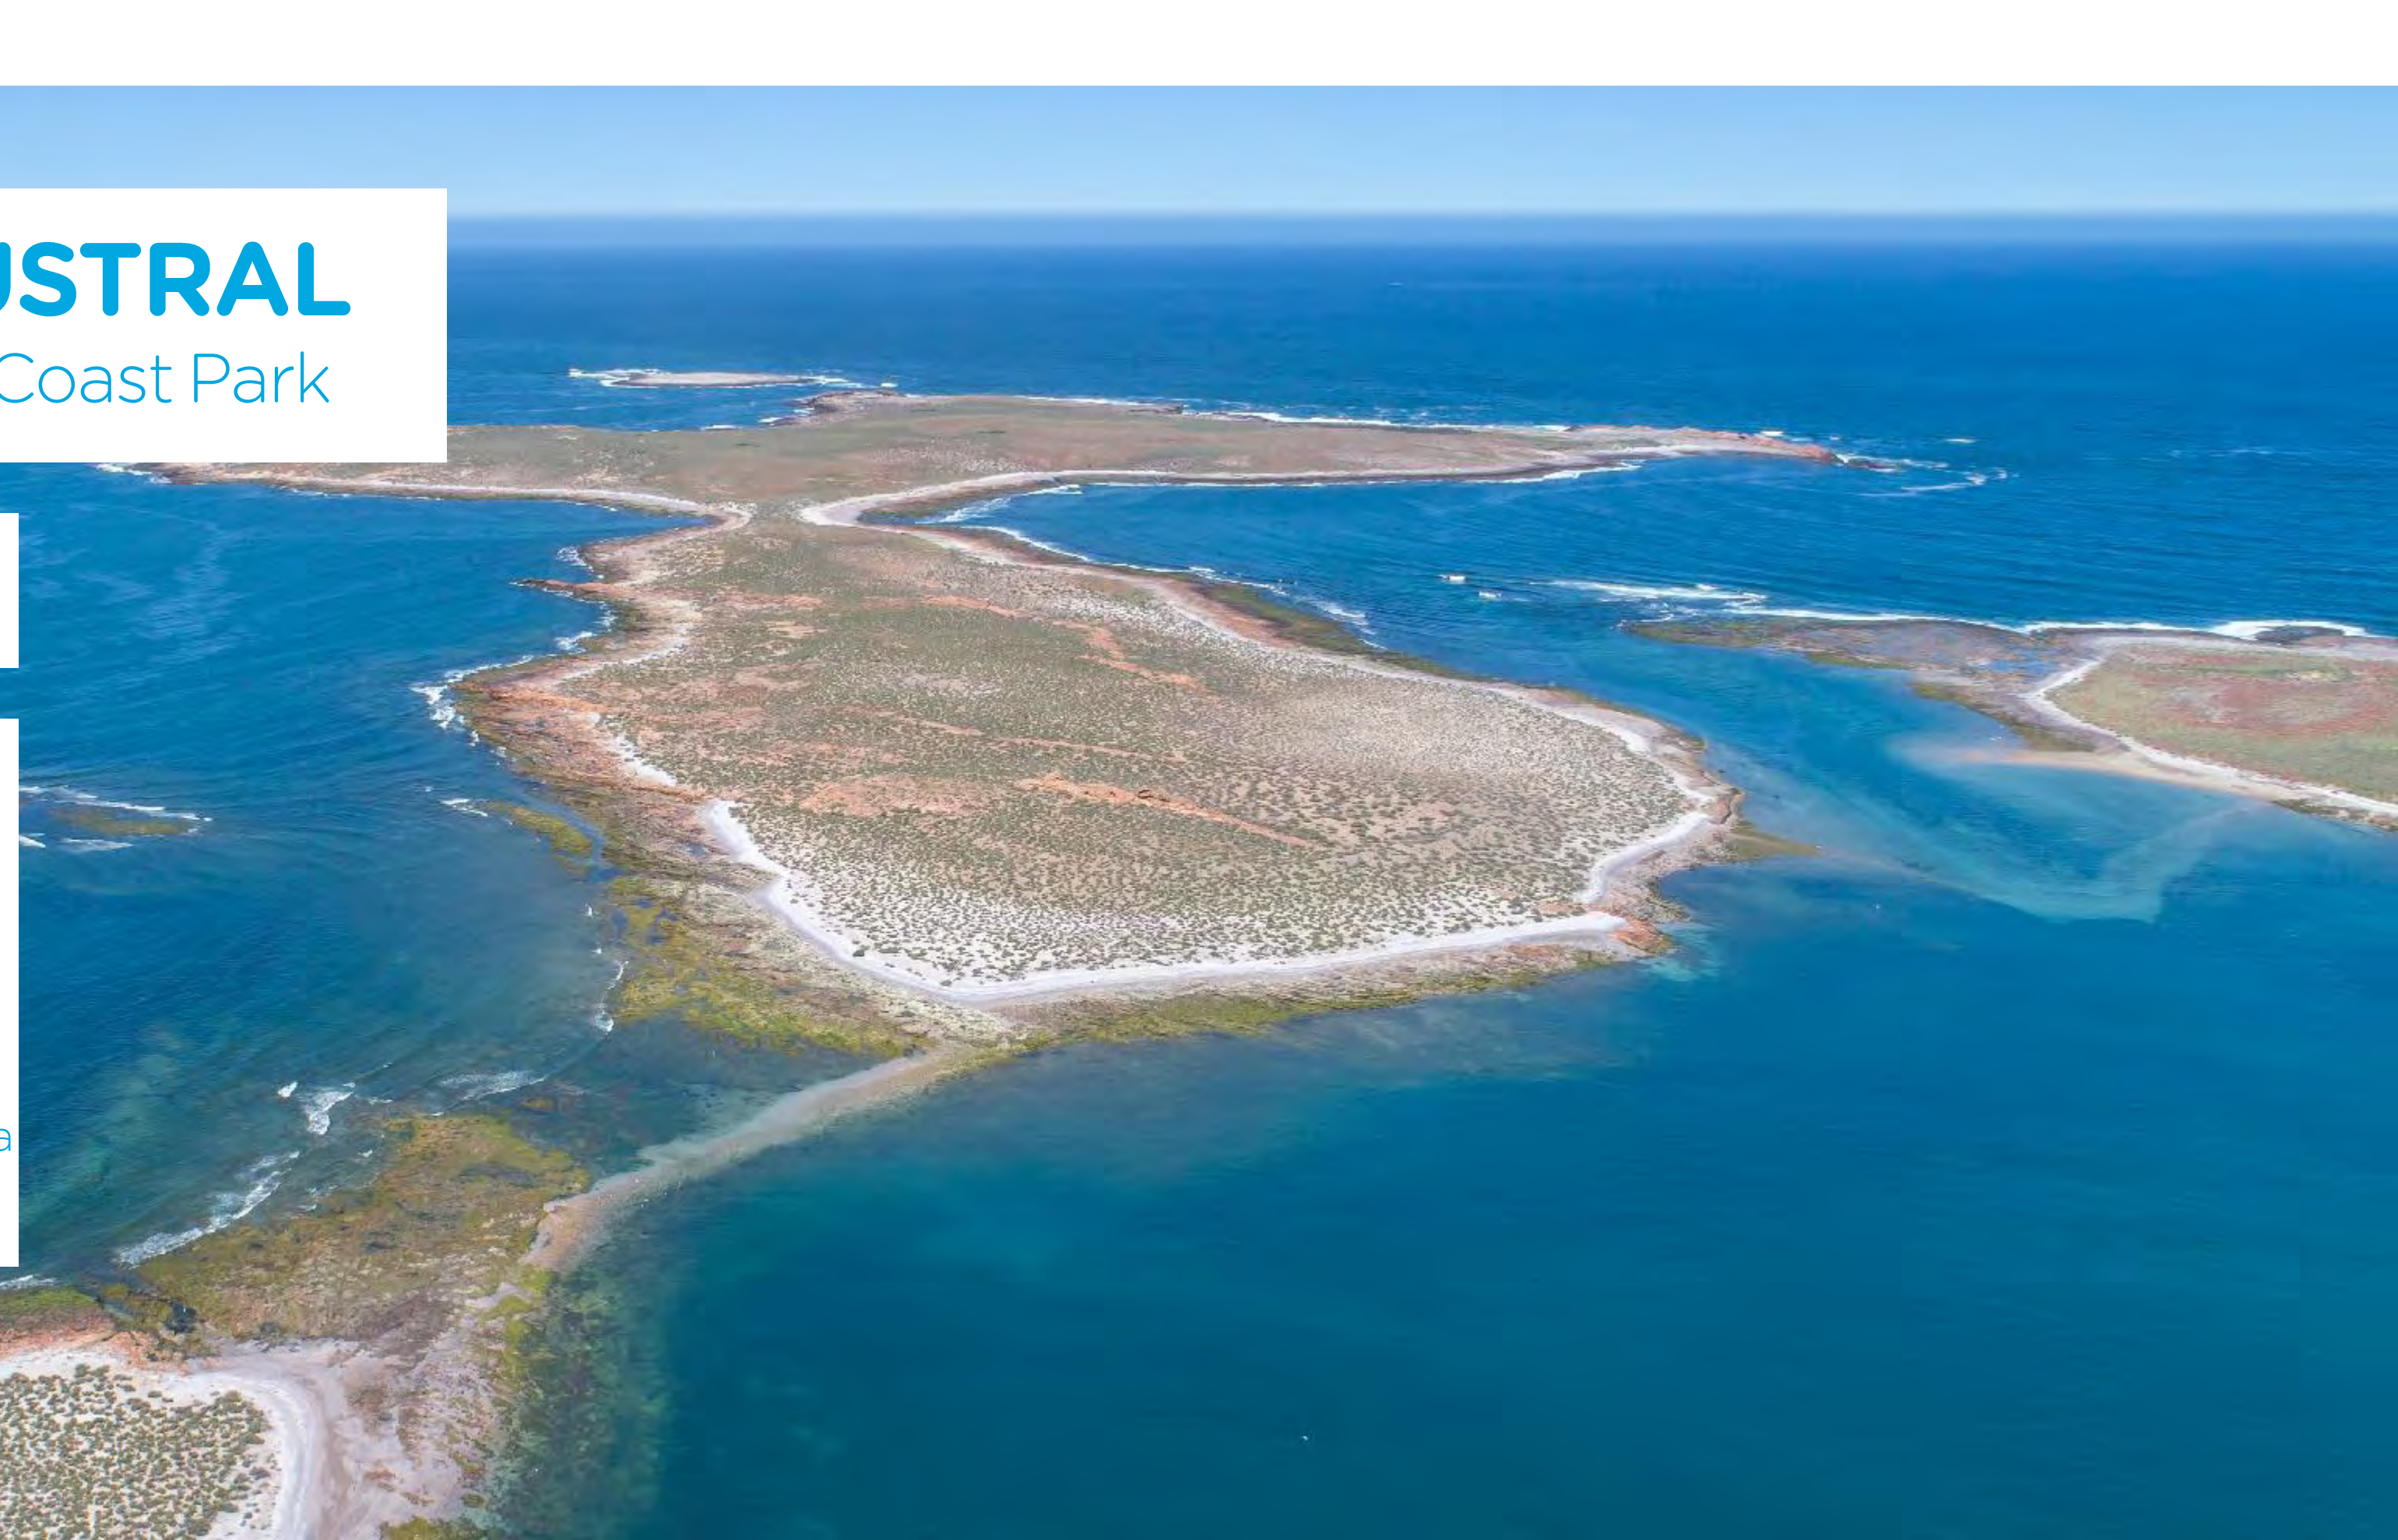

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

PATAGONIA AUSTRAL

Inter-jurisdictional Sea Coast Park

Chubut / PATAGONIA

In the continent, meadows and bushes dominate the landscape. In the water, there is a warm current from Brazil and a cold current from Malvinas. The Patagonic steppe and the Argentine Sea are protected in the province of Chubut in this Inter-jurisdictional Sea Coast Park.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

MONTE LEÓN

NATIONAL PARK

Santa Cruz / PATAGONIA

In the province of Santa Cruz, a National Park in the border of two amazing eco-regions: the all-time wild Patagonic steppe and the vast Argentine Sea.

With paths that lead to the home of penguins and sea lions, it is a world with everything to be discovered.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

PERITO MORENO

NATIONAL PARK

Santa Cruz / PATAGONIA

In the center-west of Santa Cruz, a National Park with pure Patagonic spirit, where the immensity of the steppe lives together with the charm of the Patagonic forests; indomitable winds, turquoise lakes, emblematic summits and defying paths. An ideal land to enjoy the beauty of adventure.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

LOS GLACIARES

NATIONAL PARK

Santa Cruz / PATAGONIA

The largest National Park in Argentina, a unique natural scenery in the world. A kingdom of ice giants that has thrilled travelers of all ages from the most remote times. Declared World Heritage Site by UNESCO, it is also the entrance door that leads to the national capital city of trekking: El Chaltén.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

TIERRA DEL FUEGO

NATIONAL PARK

Tierra del Fuego / PATAGONIA

The southernmost National Park, the mythical end of the world, where the foothills of the great Andes Range lower their height and meet with the sea in the emblematic Beagle channel.

NATURAL OPPORTUNITIES

Private Investment for the development of Touristic Services in Protected Natural Areas

Argentina, feel your nature

argentina.gov.ar/oportunidades-naturales/en

Secretaría de Turismo
Presidencia de la Nación

Secretaría de Ambiente
y Desarrollo Sustentable
Presidencia de la Nación

PARQUES
NACIONALES
de Argentina

Agencia Argentina de Inversiones
y Comercio Internacional

Argentina
